

How to get to the Banach Center

June 18, 2007

The Banach Center (BC) (a red square on the first map signed IM PAN) is located on Śniadeckich 8, close to the Plac Konstytucji.

If you arrive to Warsaw by train then you can take a taxi or a bus. We assume that you arrive at the main railway station - "Warszawa Centralna." Then you can take a bus line 119, 131, 525, 505, 502, 514 or 501 from the point 1 (in red). The point 1 is the end of the line for buses so you do not need to care about the direction. There will be 1 to 3 (depending on which bus you will take) bus stops to "Plac Konstytucji" that is located 50 meters from the BC.

If you decide to take a taxi: You should go from the train to the "Main Hall" and get of the hall, and then to point 0 or 1 (0 points to a bigger taxi stand).

From the airport Okęcie to BC it is slightly more complicated. You can also take a taxi or a bus. Taking a taxi is the easiest way to get from Okęcie to BC. However it is important to take a taxi from a taxi stand, at best with the telephone number on the top (e.g. 9191, 9621, 9622) which indicates that the taxi is from a taxi corporation. If you agree with a taxi driver standing in the airport hall you risk a higher price. (The regular price for getting BC may vary but should be around 50PLN.)

If you decide to take a bus you should take the line 188. You should get out at the stop Metro Politechnika at Rondo Jazdy Polskiej (the red 2 on the first map). The bus travel should take about 20 minutes. Then, there is about 400 m walk to the BC.

There are two terminals on Okęcie: Terminal 1 and The Etiuda Terminal. At present, The Etiuda Terminal services passengers of easyJet, Germanwings, Norwegian Air Shuttle, Ryanair, SkyEurope and Wizz Air. Their location is on the map provided by the airport (in violet). This is the second figure in this document. There you can also see the bus stops.

Tickets for public transport can be bought in newspaper stands or at the bus driver (although this last option is with some extra charge and does not always work). The one-time ticket costs 2.40 PLN, the 3 days ticket costs 12 PLN and the 7 days ticket costs 24 PLN
